

ICA Hosted E-mail Blasts

The ICA offers hosted E-mail blasts as a service to those wishing to send a message to our members regarding events, services and products. Our E-mail blasts costs $250 and are sent directly by the ICA to our members. If you are interested in sending a hosted E-mail blast to our members, please fill out the following form and send it to Jessica Harrie at clarinetivr@gmail.com. We will be in touch soon with information regarding formatting and submission guidelines. Please allow at least one week from date of submission for the E-mail blast to be sent.

Please Note: The International Clarinet Association requests that interested parties obtain the necessary licenses and permissions for the content they wish to submit for a hosted E-mail blast. Failure to obtain such permission can result in a refusal from the organization to send the E-mail blast. The International Clarinet Association also reserves the right to refuse any E-mail blast submission it receives for any reason. Those sending E-mail blasts and their representative agencies are directly responsible for the content they submit for E-mail blasts and agree to indemnify the International Clarinet Association from all claims and expenses associated with their E-mail blasts.
