The New Chedeville
Kanter Opera Model

Our second design collaboration with legendary studio musician and famed mouthpiece maker Jim Kanter. The new Chedeville Kanter ‘Opera’ model is the most open facing of the two Chedeville Kanter models, delivering a rich sound with added depth and flexibility across all registers. It provides a responsive feel with a natural sense of resistance, allowing for expressive nuance and dynamic control.

“This mouthpiece will be very highly sought-after in today’s clarinet world. It’s perfect for orchestra players looking for the depth and warmth without sacrificing the ability to project in large acoustic settings. That said, mouthpieces with these qualities are also very popular with chamber players and soloists playing in more intimate acoustic and musical environments.”

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR WELCOME

Dear Clarinet Community,

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to ClarinetFest® 2026 in Incheon, South Korea.

As the first ClarinetFest® ever held in Korea, this gathering represents an important moment for our international clarinet community. Throughout the week, musicians, educators, students, enthusiasts, and industry leaders from around the world will come together to share music, ideas, and friendship through our common passion for the clarinet.

On a personal level, it is especially meaningful for me to welcome you to my native country. One of my goals while hosting ClarinetFest® in Korea has been to showcase the remarkable depth, diversity, and vitality of the clarinet community throughout Korea and the region. Throughout the week, you will hear internationally acclaimed artists, outstanding young performers, innovative chamber ensembles, and even professional ensembles comprised of musicians with developmental disabilities that demonstrate the power of music to create opportunity and connection. I hope these performances offer a glimpse into the many voices and stories that are shaping our musical community today. Whether you are here to perform, learn, reconnect with colleagues, discover new ideas, or simply enjoy great music, I encourage you to explore as much as possible and engage with artists and participants from around the world. This event would not be possible without the support of our sponsors, exhibitors, volunteers, and institutional partners. I am deeply grateful to the International Clarinet Association Board of Directors, its committees, its Executive Director, Jessica Harrie, the ClarinetFest® 2026 Artistic Leadership Team, and the many individuals whose dedication has made this festival a reality.

Thank you for joining us for this historic occasion. I hope you leave Korea with new friendships and lasting memories. Most of all, I hope you experience the sense of community that makes ClarinetFest® so special.

Sincerely,

Wonkak Kim
Artistic Director
ClarinetFest 2026®

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR WELCOME

클라리넷을 사랑하는 모든 분들께,

대한민국 인천에서 개최되는 ClarinetFest® 2026에 여러분을 진심으로 환영합니다.

ClarinetFest®는 1973년 국제클라리넷협회(International Clarinet Association)가 창설된 이후 매년 세계 각국을 순회하며 개최되어 온 세계 최대 규모의 클라리넷 축제입니다. 수천 명의 연주자와 교육자, 학생, 연구자, 애호가들이 한자리에 모여 음악을 나누고 교류하는 이 뜻깊은 행사가 한국에서 개최되는 것은 이번이 처음입니다. 이는 한국 클라리넷계는 물론 우리 음악계 전체에 있어 매우 의미 있는 역사적 이정표라 할 수 있습니다.

지난 수십 년 동안 한국의 클라리넷계는 눈부신 성장을 이루어 왔습니다. 세계 주요 무대와 오케스트라, 국제 콩쿠르에서 활약하는 연주자들을 꾸준히 배출해 왔으며, 교육과 연구, 창작, 앙상블 활동 등 다양한 분야에서 괄목할 만한 발전을 이루었습니다. 또한 젊고 재능 있는 차세대 연주자들, 수준 높은 전문 연주단체들, 그리고 음악을 통해 사회적 가치를 실현하는 다양한 예술 공동체들이 함께 성장하며 더욱 풍요롭고 역동적인 생태계를 만들어 가고 있습니다.

이번 ClarinetFest® 2026은 이러한 한국 클라리넷 문화의 현재를 세계와 나누는 자리이자, 동시에 세계 클라리넷 공동체와 더욱 깊이 연결되는 소중한 기회가 될 것입니다. 다양한 국가와 문화권의 연주자들이 선보이는 수준 높은 공연과 마스터클래스, 학술 발표, 전시, 그리고 교류의 장을 통해 한국의 학생들과 교육자, 연주자들이 새로운 영감을 얻고 더 넓은 무대로 나아가는 계기가 되기를 바랍니다. 아울러 이번 축제를 통해 국제클라리넷협회와 한국 클라리넷계의 협력이 더욱 활발해지고, 더 많은 한국 연주자와 학생들이 국제클라리넷협회의 활동에 참여하게 되기를 기대합니다.

이번 행사가 성공적으로 개최될 수 있도록 함께해 주신 국제클라리넷협회 이사회와 ClarinetFest® 2026 예술감독단, 한국음악협회, 금호문화재단, 인천관광공사, 송도컨벤시아, 더브릿지 매니지먼트, 후원사와 전시업체, 자원봉사자, 그리고 수많은 관계자 여러분께 깊은 감사의 말씀을 드립니다. 여러분의 헌신과 협력이 있었기에 이 역사적인 행사가 가능할 수 있었습니다.

ClarinetFest® 2026이 한국 클라리넷계의 새로운 도약을 이끄는 뜻깊은 출발점이 되기를 진심으로 기원합니다.

감사합니다.

ClarinetFest® 2026 예술감독
김원각

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members and Friends of the International Clarinet Association:

안녕하세요, 한국의 인천에서 개최되는 2026 ICA 클라리넷 페스티벌에 오신 여러분을 벅찬 설렘과 기쁜 마음으로 환영합니다.

Hello, it is with great excitement and joy that I welcome you to the 2026 ICA ClarinetFest® in Incheon, Korea.

This is the first time that ClarinetFest® has been in in Korea, and I am so happy that we are able to be here to celebrate the clarinet together. I hope your week is filled with inspiring performances, enriching pedagogy, and fulfilling personal connections.

The ICA would like to thank Artistic Director, Wonkak Kim, for his vision and leadership in creating this conference, and the Artistic Leadership Team for its exceptional work and organization. Thank you to Taehoon Kim, Jerry Chae, Young Dae Yoo, Kyungsun Lee, Xiangyu Zhou, Sun Zen, Ti Huang, Suling Tseng, Pei-Yun Lin, Brooks Nobuo Thon, and Pei-Lun Tsai. I would also like to acknowledge the incredible work of our Executive Director, Jessica Harrie and our Executive Assistant, Lindsay Bartlett. The hard work and creativity of the ICA staff and Board alongside all the ICA committees, competition co-ordinators, jurors, interns, conductors, and volunteers are integral to the success of each conference. The guest artist performers and presenters, along with all attendees, are the heart of every ClarinetFest.

ClarinetFest® 2026 would not be possible without the generous support of our sponsors, exhibitors, vendors, and industry professionals. We are deeply grateful to the sponsors of this year's festival, including at the Sustaining level: F. Arthur Uebel, Vandoren; at the Altissimo level: Backun Musical Services, Buffet Crampon, Chedeville, D'Addario, Henri Selmer Paris, Légère / Rovner Products, Yamaha; at the Clarion level: Gleichweit; at the Chalumeau level: Silverstein Works; and at the Supporting level: ALRY Publications, The Music Association of Korea, and Incheon Tourism Organization.

We would like to recognize and thank Hangang Clarinets for its support of our Junior Young Artist Competition and Henri Selmer Paris for supporting the Orchestral Audition Competition.

We hope you enjoy your visit to Incheon and the opportunity to reconnect with friends, make new connections, and create wonderful memories.

GENERAL INFORMATION & PROCEDURES

- Conference identification is required for ALL events.
- Photography, sound recording, video recording, and/or broadcasting of ClarinetFest® performances and/or presentations is prohibited; the only exception will be for photography by the official credentialed ICA photographer and members of the staff and social media team.
- Please silence all cell phones and any other electronic devices during performances.
- Latecomers to performances should seat themselves between movements or as allowed by performance hall staff and conference volunteers.
- Please refrain from playing or speaking loudly in hallway areas as the sound may carry into the performances spaces and disrupt the events.

ICA VALUES STATEMENT

The International Clarinet Association is committed to fostering a safe and comfortable environment for all its officers, employees, members, performers, students, vendors, business associates, and visitors who attend or participate in any ICA-sponsored event or activity. This means that all participants are treated with courtesy, fairness, and mutual respect while participating in ICA events. Accordingly, the ICA requires its members and affiliates to maintain the highest standard of professional conduct and personal integrity while attending any event or activity sponsored by the ICA.

ICA STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The ICA promotes clarinetists from all backgrounds coming together for inspiration and for cultivating personal, professional, and artistic excellence, in furtherance of its Mission Statement. All members, employees and participants are responsible for fostering a climate of mutual respect at all ICA events by nurturing an atmosphere that promotes equal opportunity and prohibits discriminatory practices and treatment. The ICA is committed to protecting such an atmosphere for all the participants at its events.

ICA POLICY PROHIBITING HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION

The ICA prohibits any forms of harassment, discrimination, or bullying on the basis of an individual's actual or perceived race/ethnicity, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age, marital status, disability, or any other protected class pursuant to applicable law, in its workplace or at any ICA function or event. Harassment is any behavior that causes distress, feelings of a lack of safety, or actual physical harm.

This policy is mandatory for all officers, employees, members, performers, students, vendors, business associates, and visitors. Offending persons will be subject to appropriate disciplinary or legal action. Such disciplinary action may be, for example, termination of a business relationship, termination of membership and/or ineligibility to participate in future ICA events, and/or termination of employment, depending on the status of the offender and

As an organization committed to ensuring the safety and well-being of its members, the ICA has a procedure in place, specified in its Bylaws, to terminate a membership when the Board of Directors, in concert with the Ethics Board, determines that the purposes of the Corporation are adversely affected by a member's conduct. In all such cases, the process provided in the ICA Bylaws shall be followed.

If any member or participant has experienced or is experiencing any conduct prohibited by this policy, a Director should be notified immediately and an investigation into the incident will be conducted. Any employee experiencing conduct in violation of this policy can notify a Director without fear of reprisal or retaliation, as any reprisal or retaliation regarding a good faith complaint is strictly prohibited.

CROWD RELEASE

By completing the registration process and participating in this conference, you are consenting to be photographed, filmed, and/or otherwise recorded and to the release, publication, exhibition, or reproduction of any and all recorded media of your appearance, voice, and name for any purpose whatsoever in perpetuity in connection with the International Clarinet Association and ClarinetFest® 2026, and its initiatives, including, by way of example only, use on websites, in social media, news and advertising. By participating in the conference, you waive and release any claims you may have related to the use of recorded media of you at the event, including, without limitation, any right to inspect or approve the photo, video or audio recording of you, any claims for invasion of privacy, violation of the right of publicity, defamation, and copyright infringement or for any fees for use of such record media. You understand that all photography, filming and/or recording will be done in reliance on this consent. If you do not wish to be filmed or photographed, please do not enter the event facilities.

Enthusiast Committee Warm Up

Topic: ARIRANG WITH A DRONE: CROSS-CULTURAL IMPROVISATION

Presenter: Mikki Ryan

This warm-up explores the intersection of Korean traditional music, improvisation, and Celtic drone practice through the folk song Arirang. The session begins with a traditional performance accompanied by a sustained bagpipe drone, then moves into improvisational exploration, revealing how we can reshape melody, phrasing, and expression.

Participants will engage in accessible group improvisation exercises using Arirang as a shared framework, experimenting with ornamentation, variation, and listening within a cross-cultural sound environment. Open to musicians of all levels, the warm-up encourages creative exploration beyond stylistic boundaries.

LECTURE: "WICHIT HOTHAI: THE THAI VOICE ON CLARINET"

Presenter: Tanyawat (Nuk) Dilokkunanant

Exploring the artistry and legacy of Lieutenant Colonel Wichit Hothai (National Artist of Thailand, 2012), this presentation focuses on a pioneering Thai clarinetist known for blending Western clarinet performance with Thai traditional music. By adapting the timbre, ornamentation, and expressive style of instruments such as the pi nai to the clarinet, Hothai developed a distinctive musical voice rooted in Thai heritage. The presentation examines his musical background, artistic innovations, and lasting influence on clarinet performance and music-making in Thailand.

Tanyawat Dilokkunanant's appearance is supported by Zhaoqing University.

LECTURE: FROM LOCAL TO GLOBAL: HARNESSING COLLABORATION FOR CREATIVITY AND CAREERS IN MUSIC

Presenter: Nicole Canham

This lecture recital draws upon Dr Nicole Canham's ongoing, long-term collaboration with the composer Dr Carlos Lopez Charles to provide a template for clarinetists considering how they might develop the 'local' aspects of their work into global connections.

Through stories, strategies and performance, Nicole shares how her initially local interests – commissioning and performing music from composers in her community – developed into a global network and fulfilling career pathway. Works to be performed include the world premiere of a new visual music piece by Carlos Lopez for clarinet and video, and a recent work by Lani Zimora, also for clarinet and video. Presenting these works offers a space to reflect on the long and short term benefits of collaboration as a core part of sustainable and satisfying careers in music. The lecture recital will conclude with a template for those in the audience to consider how their own interests, connections and ways of working can be harnessed to make broader connections with others in and through a life in music through the following guiding questions:

1. How can a local focus help musicians to uncover new musical directions and interests?
2. What new questions do these new directions invite, and how they can be answered?
3. Do we need to write it all down? Documenting the process.
4. What did we learn?
5. Where to from here?

THE INVISIBLE SCORE - PERSPECTIVES ON CLARINET IMPROVISATION

In the world of improvisation on the clarinet, we are confronted with fundamental questions: how do we engage with tradition? How can we approach an unfamiliar style? How do we bring a musical idea into reality? How do we complete a musical process?

Studying musical traditions that specialize in improvisation opens up new possibilities, expanding our sonic perception on the instrument. We will work on transforming and reinterpreting musical discourse as a means of expression and artistic development—something that is both possible and essential in any musical genre.

Enthusiast Committee Warm Up: BEYOND THE SCALE: UNLOCKING TECHNIQUE THROUGH SCALES, PERMUTATIONS & GROOVE

Presenter: Christine MacDonnell

This session will take the traditional warm-up beyond the ordinary. Instead of repetitive scale routines, this session explores creative scale patterns, permutations, dominant seventh chords, blues notes, and blues scales through engaging rhythmic grooves and beats. Participants will strengthen technique, flexibility, and musicality while discovering fresh ways to make daily warm-ups more musical, energizing, and fun.

LECTURE-RECITAL: "KOREAN COMPOSER JEEYOUNG KIM"

Presenter: Jin Yun

This lecture-recital will present Wanderlust by Korean composer Jeeyoung Kim, a work that embodies the ClarinetFest® 2026 theme "Local Roots, Global Connections." Composed during Kim's residency with the Korean Concert Society, Wanderlust reflects the German word's meaning—an enthusiasm for travel—as a metaphor for life's unpredictable journey. The piece synthesizes Korean traditional elements with contemporary language, drawing on Nong-Hyun (the fluctuation of a single note for ornamentation), lyrical Korean-style melodies shaped by vibrato and glissando, and rhythmic patterns inspired by Korean shamanistic practices. Structured in four sections—ornamental exploration, lyrical melody, cultural synthesis, and triumphant conclusion—the work highlights the fusion of tradition and modernity. Through performance and commentary, this presentation will explore how Wanderlust reflects Korean identity, cultural hybridity, and the broader intersections of local tradition with global contemporary practice. This lecture-recital will provide audiences with both musical insight and live performance of this significant work for clarinet.

LECTURE: EMBRACING MULTIMEDIA ELEMENTS IN NEW CLARINET COMPOSITIONS: CONCRETE APPROACHES AND EXAMPLE PERFORMANCES

Presenters: Zhi-Yuan Luo & Tao Li

This lecture will discuss different concrete approaches to embracing the new clarinet genre of compositions that incorporate multimedia technologies. Examples that include technology through fixed media electroacoustic components, pieces with visual components, and pieces with interactive technologies will be given and explained. To illustrate application of the discussed approaches, the lecture will conclude with performance/demonstration of two recent clarinet and electroacoustic pieces that received global recognition and impact: Tres Aurorae (2021) by Li Tao (Ph.D., University of Oregon, USA), and Wusong Fights the Tiger (2014) by Li Qiuxiao (DMA, Zhejiang Conservatory, China). These two pieces engage with clarinet writing and the use of technology from different angles, but both realize brilliant fusions of their traditional cultural background and the latest technology tools to showcase the diverse expressiveness of a new genre of clarinet performance.

LECTURE: INTERSECTIONS OF PERFORMANCE, HISTORY, AND BALLET IN THREE FRENCH CLARINET WORKS FROM 1926-1936

Presenters: Dr. Beverly Gibson, Angelina Gibson, and Dr. Eun-Hee Park

This collaborative, interdisciplinary lecture recital centers around the works of Mazellier, Tailleferre, and Jeanjean through live performance and historical contextualization. While ballet history and performance has received notable attention in musicological and theoretical literature, these works grant a new dimension for performance and scholarship alike. University of Michigan musicology PhD student Angelina Gibson will provide a lecture unveiling the pieces' history and origins within the Ballet Russes; their choreographic implications and possibilities; and the life of the composers themselves. Performance of these works for clarinet and piano by Drs. Beverly Gibson (clarinet) and Eun-Hee Park (piano) bring together the historical materials, their lives upon the stage, and performance into dynamic dialogue.

Enthusiast Committee Warm Up: WHY WARM-UPS MATTER: 3 EXERCISES TO FAST-TRACK YOUR FUNDAMENTALS

Presenter: Victor Chavez

At its core, playing the clarinet really comes down to just 3 fundamentals: sound quality, finger movement, and articulation. In this warm-up we will work through some simple exercises that every clarinetist should be pursuing perfection on to master the instrument and make difficult music easy. As a bonus, you will leave truly understanding why every teacher says you need to do long tones, and you just might go into your next practice session excited, rather than bored, about your warm-up!

Gather at the Rock Jenni Brandon (b. 1977)

The ClarinetFest Pride Clarinet Choir brings together LGBTQ+ clarinetists and allies from around the world. Representing a wide range of backgrounds, experiences, and identities, the ensemble reflects the spirit of connection that lies at the heart of the International Clarinet Association and the broader clarinet community.

Conducted by Eric Schultz, this year's program features works by Armando Bayolo, Amanda Harberg, Iván Enrique Rodríguez, and Jenni Brandon. Along the way, the music explores questions of identity, the shared struggle of growing into oneself, and the people who support us along the way. Together, these pieces trace a journey from childhood imagination and self-discovery to reflection, resilience, and ultimately celebration. In these difficult times, our joy remains an act of resilience. This is what we mean by pride.

PODCAST: HIDDEN CUES LIVE: PARENTHOOD, THE CLARINET, AND THE PLACES WE CALL HOME

Presenters: Amy Guffey & Amanda Morrison

Hidden Cues is a podcast that delves into the layered experiences of pregnancy and parenthood in the performing arts, told through the personal stories of clarinetists and musicians worldwide. This live session at ClarinetFest brings the podcast to life through a special episode focused on the 2025 theme: “Local Roots, Global Connections.”

How do clarinetists navigate the demands of family life while honoring their musical heritage and pursuing international careers? What role do community, geography, and tradition play in shaping how artists parent—and how they perform? This session will feature storytelling, interviews, and audience engagement that explore how artists root themselves in place while building meaningful artistic and familial lives across borders.

The clarinet community has responded enthusiastically to these conversations. Hidden Cues has built an international listener base spanning the United States, China, Germany, Italy, Hungary, Russia, the Czech Republic, and Switzerland. This global engagement underscores the podcast's mission: to amplify stories that are both grounded in local realities and connected to a shared international dialogue.

Parenthood is a deeply personal journey, but it is also shaped by culture, infrastructure, and support systems—elements that vary widely across the globe. Hidden Cue offers space for these conversations, amplifying voices that are often unheard in traditional performance settings. At ClarinetFest, we'll discuss the realities of parenting as clarinetists: career continuity, creative evolution, and how family influences musical choices.

This session will resonate with performers, educators, students, and anyone interested in how life offstage informs life onstage. Attendees will also get an inside look at podcast storytelling as a tool for community-building in the clarinet world.

This session is sponsored by Backun.

LECTURE: MAPPING CLARINETFEST®: WHAT 50+ YEARS OF DATA REVEALS

Presenter: Jana Starling

The ClarinetFest® Program Library and Database began as an independent project to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the ICA conference by documenting its programming history. Initially envisioned as a searchable repertoire resource, it soon expanded to include artist names, composer dates and countries, lecture topics, master classes, and exhibitors. Today, it contains over 10,000 performed works (with premiere indicators), 700+ lectures, 150+ master classes, and more than 1,300 exhibitors accessible through spreadsheet tools. As I digitized the programs, a visual story emerged and patterns in aesthetic evolution, social shifts, advocacy efforts, and creativity became clearly visible. Through a light statistical lens, this lecture explores the evolving patterns of our beloved conference and considers what they may reveal about its future.

ARTIST BIOGRAPHIES

AdaMa Quartet is a newly formed chamber music quartet that brings together a striking blend of strings and winds, four distinct personalities, and stylistic breadth like no other. As the first professional quartet of this instrumentation, this uncommon fusion of clarinet, bass clarinet, violin, and cello allows AdaMa to push boundaries of sonic expression, merging styles and genres, and inspiring new works through targeted commissions and projects. With its evocative sound world and deeply rooted storytelling, AdaMa offers audiences a compelling new voice in the world of chamber music. Our upcoming 2026/2027 season includes an exciting whirlwind of concerts in US's Midwest and East Coast, NYC's Weill Hall/ Carnegie, and tours in South Korea and Israel and album release.

Dr. Jason Alder is an internationally active low-clarinet specialist, new-music advocate, improviser, and researcher. He collaborates closely with composers to develop and premiere new repertoire for the full clarinet family, appears worldwide as a performer and educator, and is sought after in film and television recording, with credits for Paramount, BBC, ITV, RTL+, and Apple TV+. He authored the widely used Quarter-Tone and Altissimo Fingering Charts for clarinet, bass clarinet, and contrabass clarinet, publishes regularly in The Clarinet and Clarinet & Saxophone journal, and recently released Milieu Interieur with solo clarinet works by Thanos Chrysakis. Jason completed his musical studies in the US and the Netherlands, earned his PhD in the UK, and is currently based in London. He currently serves on the ICA New Music Committee and is the Deputy Treasurer for the European Clarinet Association. He was formerly the editor of The Clarinet [Online], on the 2023 & 2025 Low Clarinet Festival Artistic Committee, and was Co-Artistic Director of ClarinetFest 2024 in Dublin. Jason is an artist for Selmer Paris, D'Addario, Silverstein, and Behn.

Herson Amorim holds a Doctorate in Music from UNICAMP, a Master's degree in Arts from UFPA, and a Bachelor's degree in Clarinet Performance from UEPA, where he studied with Oleg Andryeyev and Joel Barbosa. He began his musical studies in 1999 at the Assembleia de Deus church, later enrolling at the Carlos Gomes Conservatory, where he studied with Marcos Cohen and Jacob Cantão. He has performed in Chile, Argentina, Portugal, Poland, and Belgium. He was a professor at the Carlos Gomes Conservatory (Belém – PA) and served as principal clarinetist of the Teatro da Paz Symphony Orchestra from 2004 to 2010. Since 2009, he has been a tenured clarinet professor at the UFPA School of Music. He is an endorsed artist of RZ Clarinets and Gonzalez Reeds.

Violist Ames Asbell has performed across genres in venues around the world ranging from Carnegie Hall to clubs. Recent performances include International Viola Congresses in France, Brazil, Thailand, Poland, and New Zealand, and recitals in Scotland, South Africa, Japan, and Mexico. She appears on recordings by Nonesuch, Harmonia Mundi, Naxos, Sony, and Centaur, including ten appearances on Austin City Limits. Ongoing performance activities include Austin Symphony, Austin Opera, Arizona Musicfest, Victoria Bach Festival, Philharmonie Austin (period performance) and Conspirare. A dynamic artist-teacher, she is currently Professor of Viola at Texas State University and President of the American Viola Society.

Barbara Borowicz and Bartosz Saldan have performed as a duo since 2015. They specialize in contemporary music for clarinet and percussion, exploring the unique sonic and expressive possibilities of this instrumental combination. An important part of their artistic activity is the premiere performance of new works written especially for the duo by Polish composers, including Marcel Chyżyński, Ewa Fabiańska-Jelińska, Agnieszka Zdrojek-Suchodolska and Katarzyna Kwiecień-Długosz. Through these collaborations, the duo actively contributes to the development of new chamber repertoire. The ensemble has performed extensively in Poland and internationally, with concerts in Italy, Spain, the Netherlands, Iran, the United States and Argentina. They have appeared at renowned contemporary music festivals and international events such as the Poznań Music Spring Festival, ClariSax Day (Italy), the SWIK International Music Festival (Netherlands), the Tehran International Contemporary Music Festival and ClarinetFest (USA, Belgium). Their work plays an important role in promoting contemporary Polish music abroad and expanding the repertoire for clarinet and percussion. Both artists are professionally affiliated with the Krzysztof Penderecki Academy of Music in Kraków.

Michael Bartnik currently serves as Chair of the Mary Morgan Moore Department of Music at Lamar University in Beaumont, Texas. Before his current role, he held the position of Department Head and Associate Professor of Woodwinds at Nicholls State University. Since 2009, Dr. Bartnik has been a member of the Baton Rouge Symphony Orchestra, contributing to a chamber recording released under the Sono Luminos label. His musical journey includes principal positions with Texarkana Symphony Orchestra, Round Rock Symphony, and Acadiana Symphony Orchestra. Additional performances include the national Broadway tours of Wicked, Phantom of the Opera, and Little House on the Prairie as well as ensemble performances throughout Europe and chamber recitals throughout Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He has shared the stage with musicians such as Yo-Yo Ma, Hilary Hahn, Emmanuel Axe, and Lang-Lang.

The Bass Clarinet Association of Canada (BCAC) aims to create a Canadian community, linked to international communities, around the bass clarinet. The association has been founded in 2022 by Mélanie Bourassa and André Moisan, since that moment they played around the world, ordered many compositions in order to develop the repertoire, and recorded an album, at Palais Montcalm in Québec, with the wonderful organ of this concert hall. The website hosts a catalogue of repertoire created by Mélanie Bourassa.

Jean-Guy Boisvert is devoted to the repertoire of the 20th and 21st centuries. He has premiered over 300 Canadian works and commissioned a wide range of pieces for soloists and ensembles. Among them, La belle aventure, 135 miniatures by 20 Canadian composers and more recently, a corpus of poetic sonatas/fantasias. The miniatures and poetic works are being published by Doberman-Yppan and recorded with various labels. His last CD, Album pour la jeunesse XXI with pianist Philippe Prud'homme has been nominated as best classical music recording with East Coast Music Awards in May 2026. It proposes works by Mathieu Lussier, Samy Moussa and Bruce Pennycook. Previous recordings include works by André Boucourechliev, Eugene Bozza, Jean Cartan, Florent Schmitt, Charles Koechlin, Jean Rivier, Karlheinz Stockhausen, and Canadian composers Nicolas Gilbert, Denis Gougeon, Christos Hatzis, Jacques Hétu, François-Hugues Leclair and Jean Lesage among others. He has performed extensively in the traditional repertoire, notably in collaboration with the Alcan, Laval, Arthur-Leblanc and Penderecki quartets and pianists John Newmark, Marc Durand Suzanne Goyette and Lorraine Prieur. A graduate of the Conservatoire de musique du Québec and the Guildhall School of Music, he holds a doctorate in contemporary music performance from the Université de Montréal. He has studied with such diverse musicians as Robert Crowley, Rafaëlle Masella, Yona Ettlinger, Robert Marcellus and Suzan Stephens with whom he especially worked on the choreographic works of Stockhausen, including Harlekin. Boisvert teaches clarinet, saxophone, chamber music, and music analysis at the Université de Moncton.

Dr. Stephen Borodkin (he/him/his) is a vibrant clarinetist and educator based in Kansas City. He currently serves as the Adjunct Professor of Clarinet at Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, MO. An advocate for new music and collaborative chamber performances, Borodkin is a founding member of the Hijinx Clarinet Quartet, with whom he often commissions works and performs in unconventional performance venues to attract new concertgoers. His solo and chamber work has taken him across the United States and internationally to Austria and Belgium. Borodkin is active in the International Clarinet Association, serving on the Membership and Development Committee and as Volunteer Coordinator for the annual ClarinetFest® conferences. He holds degrees from the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory (DMA), Indiana University's Jacobs School of Music (MM), and the University of Memphis (BM). His primary teachers include Jane Carl, Diane Barger, Howard Klug, and Robyn Jones.

Mélanie Bourassa (PHD) is a Buffet-Crampon artist and a Silverstein artist. She studied in Canada, Europe and United States and teaches at Laval University (Qc) and Cégep de Ste-Foy. She performs regularly with the Quebec Symphony, Montreal Symphony and Violons du Roy, among others and as a soloist across Canada, the United States, and Europe. Mélanie founded the Bass Clarinet Association of Canada (www.accb.ca) the Canadian Center of Excellence in Bass Clarinet and the Bass Clarinet Academy (Laval University). She won many prizes and she recorded under Atma labels with les Violons du Roy.

Founded in 2016, Buddy Clarinet Ensemble is made up of professional and amateur clarinet enthusiasts, and is currently the most fully equipped (from A-flat piccolo clarinet to contrabass clarinet) clarinet ensemble in Taiwan. Its repertoire ranges from popular to classical music, from original works to arrangements, with the goal of allowing audiences of all ages to experience the joy of clarinet music. The group has performed many times in major concert halls in Taiwan, including the National Concert Hall, National Taichung Theater, and Weiwuying National Kaohsiung Center for the Arts.

C.U. Clarinet Ensemble Founded in 2010 by Assistant Professor Choowit Yurayong and clarinet majors from Chulalongkorn University, the C.U. Clarinet Ensemble is a distinguished student-led chamber ensemble affiliated with the Office of Art and Culture, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand. The ensemble was established to expand the repertoire for clarinet ensemble while fostering collaborative artistic development among young musicians. The ensemble brings together current students and alumni majoring in clarinet from leading Thai institutions, including Chulalongkorn University, Kasetsart University, Mahidol University, and Silpakorn University. The group performs under the artistic direction of Assistant Professor Choowit Yurayong as Music Director, with Mr. Wantana Tancharoenpol serving as Conductor and Arranger. Internationally recognized, the ensemble has represented Thailand at ClarinetFest® 2013 (Assisi, Italy), ClarinetFest® 2015 (Madrid, Spain), and ClarinetFest® 2018 (Ostend, Belgium). The ensemble has received numerous awards, including First Prize at the Singapore Woodwind Festival (2014), Gold Medals at the International Youth Music Festival (2015, Bratislava, Slovakia), and First Prize at the Thailand World Music Championships (2013). Committed to artistic excellence and cultural dialogue, the C.U. Clarinet Ensemble presents performances that blend Western clarinet traditions with Southeast Asian musical perspectives, contributing a distinctive Thai voice to the international clarinet community.

She is Artistic Director of Chamber Music Amici and Co-Artistic Director of the Classical on Broadway Series in Eugene, Oregon.

The ClarinetFest Pride Clarinet Choir brings together LGBTQ+ clarinetists and allies from around the world. Representing a wide range of backgrounds, experiences, and identities, the ensemble reflects the spirit of connection that lies at the heart of the International Clarinet Association and the broader clarinet community. Conducted by Eric Schultz, this year's program features works by Armando Bayolo, Amanda Harberg, Iván Enrique Rodríguez, and Jenni Brandon. Along the way, the music explores questions of identity, the shared struggle of growing into oneself, and the people who support us along the way. Together, these pieces trace a journey from childhood imagination and self-discovery to reflection, resilience, and ultimately celebration. In these difficult times, our joy remains an act of resilience. This is what we mean by pride.

The Clarinucks features professional clarinetists from the Prairie region of Canada. The ensemble includes Dr. Catherine Wood, a professor at Brandon University and the President-Elect of the International Clarinet Association (ICA); she is also a Buffet Crampon and Vandoren Paris Artist. Hyon Suk Kim is the Principal Clarinetist of the Regina Symphony Orchestra, a clarinet instructor, and the director of the Clarinet and New Music Ensemble at the University of Regina. Dr. Vanessa Klassen serves as the Associate Principal Clarinetist of the Regina Symphony Orchestra and is a sessional lecturer at the University of Regina.

Madison Engen has performed as a utility player with the Regina Symphony since 2016.

Clarisma Ensemble. Clarisma's name is a play on words, derived from the word Charisma. And CI is the abbreviation of clarinet. That is to say, Clarisma hope that through the music of clarinet, the audience can feel the charm of clarinet and music. Clarisma aims to bring music full of charm and imagination to its audiences. Their repertoire not only includes Traditional chamber music and mostly new orchestral works. Clarisma is also keen on promoting classical music in Hong Kong and will invite Hong Kong composers to create a series of new works in the future. These new works will reflect Hong Kong's culture and tradition, including a blend of Chinese and Western cultures. The clarinet is one of the instruments closest to the human voice. Clarisma hopes to use the beautiful timbre of clarinet music to bring new experiences and insights to the audience by playing some famous classical music and even original Cantonese pop music. They hope to showcase the essence of classical music by performing the most powerful excerpts from well-known works, allowing the public to easily enter the world of classical music.

The Coastal Carolina University Clarinet Choir is a community of the top undergraduate clarinetists at Coastal Carolina University dedicated to performing a diverse repertoire spanning traditional masterworks, contemporary compositions, and world premieres. Under the direction of Dr. Eric Schultz, Associate Professor of Clarinet and founder of The REP Project, the CCU Clarinet Choir is recognized for its commitment to living composers and repertoire expansion. Through The REP Project, students engage directly with leading voices in contemporary music, participating in commissions, premieres, residencies, and educational collaborations with composers including Valerie Coleman, Amanda Harberg, Armando Bayolo, Jenni Brandon, and many others. The ensemble's work emphasizes repertoire as representation, exploring music that reflects the diversity and creativity of today's musical landscape.

Critically praised for “brilliant and stunning” performances, “terrific virtuosic playing,” and “a fine sense of drama,” David Cook is Associate Professor of Clarinet and Chair of Instrumental Performance Studies at Millikin University, Principal Clarinet of the Millikin-Decatur Symphony Orchestra, and clarinetist for the Appian Duo (with Emily Grabinski, piano) and the Greyline Duo (with Alexandra Rodriguez, flute). He was previously a member of the Wichita Symphony Orchestra, the Lawton Philharmonic Orchestra, the Lieurance Woodwind Quintet, and the wind quintet Fiati Five. Past appearances include the International Clarinet Association's ClarinetFest® as a featured headlining soloist, the College Music Society National Conference, the NACWPI Conference, the Midwest Clinic, the American Single Reed Summit, the Amicitia Clarinet Extravaganza, and the David Clarinet Colloquium at Texas A&M University-Commerce. David's book Clarinet Conditioning: Warm-Ups and

Perspectives, featuring contributions from clarinetists including members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, and “The President's Own” United States Marine Band, is published by Conway Publications. He is also the founder and director of Academic Musician Career Consulting, a service offering guidance and coaching for musicians working in higher education or on the academic job market. David holds BM and BME degrees from Central Michigan University, MM degrees in clarinet performance and chamber music from the University of Michigan, and the DMA degree in clarinet performance and the MM degree in music theory from the University of Oklahoma. David is a Buffet Crampon USA Performing Artist, a D'Addario Artist, and a member of the Silverstein PRO Team. davidcookclarinet.com

The 'Creole Encounters' guitar/clarinet duo explores and showcases 19th and 20th century repertoire from the Latin-American diaspora. The duo enjoys adapting and arranging traditional Latin-American works for performance on modern classical guitar and clarinet/bass clarinet, as well as premiering new compositions based on Latin-American styles. The duo brings to the concert stage a variety of pieces customarily performed by ensembles in 'participatory' community settings. Concerts are convivial and inclusive occasions accompanied by informative narration.

The Cross Continental Clarinet Trio (C3) has rapidly emerged as one of the most respected clarinet trios in the United States of America. Each member is an accomplished, experienced artist teacher. Members of the group, Spencer Prewitt, Jeffrey O'Flynn and Christopher Nichols, serve as faculty at Austin Peay State University, Utah Valley University and the University of Delaware, respectively. C3 has recently performed at the American Single Reed Summit and International Clarinet Association ClarinetFests in 2019 and 2022.

Philippe Cuper joined the Paris National Opera Orchestra in 1982 and served as principal clarinet from 1984 to 2022. He teaches at the Versailles National Conservatory, the Schola Cantorum in Paris, and the Ecole Normale de Musique de Paris, succeeding Guy Dangain and Guy Deplus. Born in Lille, Cuper studied at the Sorbonne University and the Paris Conservatoire (CNSM), where he earned a first prize with exceptionally high honors. His teachers included Gilbert Voisin, Guy Dangain, Guy Deplus, and Henri Druart, and he received mentorship from J. Lancelot, A. Boutard, S. Drucker, J. Hubeau, and P. Pasquier. He was principal clarinet of the Youth World Orchestra and, at age 20, became principal clarinet of the Lamoureux Orchestra in Paris. Quintette Les Jeux d'Anches is a professional ensemble formed by five Taiwanese musicians active across Europe and Asia. Centered on the reed quintet as its core formation, the ensemble develops projects in flexible configurations while maintaining reed-based chamber music as its artistic foundation. Committed to expanding the repertoire and performance practice of the reed quintet, the group presents original works, new commissions, and refined arrangements. Through close collaboration with composers and international platforms, Les Jeux d'Anches brings Taiwanese repertoire into a global chamber music context, shaping a contemporary voice for reed instruments across diverse performance settings.

PhD Agnieszka Dąbrowska-Kras is a Polish clarinetist, educator, and digital content creator. She graduated with honours from the Academy of Music in Kraków and received her PhD degree from the same institution. She is a laureate of numerous international music competitions in Poland, Italy, Greece, Sweden, Austria, Russia, Ukraine, and Slovenia, and performs regularly in Poland and abroad, collaborating with artists from different countries. Her distinctions include the Young Poland Scholarship of the Polish Ministry of Culture and National Heritage, the Ars Quaerendi Award of the Małopolska Region for outstanding contributions to the promotion of culture, and the Music Eagles Award for artistic, scholarly, and educational achievements. An important part of her artistic activity has been the Fog and Flamenco Clarinet Project, a concert series presenting rarely performed twentieth century works by Spanish and English composers. The concept was further developed in her debut album released in 2023: Spanish Clarinet Music of the 20th Century. The E-flat clarinet plays a central role in her artistic and research activity and forms the core of her original project Piccolo Re:Vision, dedicated to redefining the role of piccolo clarinet in musical practice and establishing their independent presence on the concert stage. The project includes performances, research, educational initiatives, and the creation of artistic and educational content for Instagram and YouTube. As part of this activity, in 2025 she composed Piccolo Uccello for solo E-flat clarinet, inspired by birdsong and sounds of nature. She also promotes new repertoire for the instrument and prepares her own transcriptions for E-flat clarinet. For more information, please visit: www.agnieszkadabrowskakras.com

Gavyn Tapp, Jason Hilario, Devin Calderon, and Raul Roldan. United by a shared commitment to musical excellence, Invicta aims to showcase the artistry and talent emerging from California's Central Valley. The name Invicta Latin for "invincible," "undefeated," or "unconquered" captures the group's spirit and mission: to elevate and inspire through performance, proving that powerful, high-level music-making thrives in every community. Invicta performs a wide-ranging repertoire that spans classical standards, contemporary works, and innovative new arrangements. Each member brings unique experience and perspective, creating a collaborative and expressive sound that resonates with audiences of all kinds. With a dedication to both artistry and outreach, Invicta Clarinet Quartet is poised to make a lasting impact on the musical landscape starting in Fresno and reaching far beyond.

Clarinetist Jongsun Jang has been praised for his purity and precision as a performer. While attending Seoul Arts High School, he moved to Germany to pursue further musical studies. He completed his Master's degree at the University of Music and Performing Arts Munich, where he was later awarded a full DAAD scholarship to complete the prestigious Meisterklasse program (Konzertexamen). He then further refined his artistry by completing a postgraduate performance course for professional musicians at the Mozarteum University Salzburg in Austria. Jang has appeared on various major media platforms, including KBS Classic FM, KBS Odyssey, EBS Space Empathy, KBS Young Artists Spotlight, and tvN's People Inside hosted by Baek Ji-yeon. He also featured in the music documentary film Ensemble, produced by actor Kim Nam-gil. His performance career includes solo and chamber music appearances across Germany, France, Switzerland, and Japan. Since his official recital debut in January 2020 at the Seoul Arts Center's Recital Hall, he has continued to present annual solo recitals and remains active as a performer. He is also a featured artist for Légère Reeds, maintaining a strong connection with his audience. Currently, Jongsun Jang serves on the faculty at Yewon School, Sunhwa Arts School, Seoul Arts High School, and Kangwon National University, where he is dedicated to nurturing the next generation of clarinetists. Matthew Jansen is a Panamanian clarinetist and Selmer Artist based in Glasgow. He performs regularly with the Scottish Chamber Orchestra and recently appeared as a soloist with the National Symphony Orchestra of Panama. He maintains an active career as both a chamber musician and orchestral performer.

The Jeju Team Selmer Clarinet Ensemble is a unique group of clarinetists based on Jeju Island, South Korea's southernmost province. United by their use of Henri Selmer Paris instruments, the ensemble creates a unique musical palette, dedicated to delivering world-class performances to the local community.

Kyusang Jeong studied at the Folkwang University of the Arts Essen (Diplom), the Hochschule für Musik Augsburg (Meister), and the Folkwang University of the Arts Essen, where he completed a Master's degree in Contemporary Music. He has been invited to perform at leading new music festivals across Europe and Asia, including Darmstadt Summer Course, Acht Brücken (Cologne), NOW-Festival (Essen), Klangzeit-Festival (Münster), OPENING-Festival (Trier), ARKO Contemporary Orchestral Music Festival (Seoul), Sounding Now Festival (Singapore), and Klangspuren Festival (Schwaz, Austria). Founded in 2013 and now in its 13th year, the Joy Clarinet Ensemble is a vibrant lifestyle cultural community of approximately 30 amateur musicians united by their profound love for the clarinet. As a dedicated amateur ensemble, the group seeks to achieve musical excellence while leading a healthy and enriching leisure culture within civil society. Under the expert leadership of Music Director SeungKwon Rhee and Conductor GeonJoo Kim, the ensemble has consistently engaged with the public through annual performances. Notably, excluding the COVID-19 pandemic period, the ensemble has successfully presented 11 regular concerts to date. Their diverse repertoire, ranging from classical masterpieces to contemporary arrangements, showcases a high level of musicality and harmony. The Joy Clarinet Ensemble remains committed to its founding principle of sharing "joy" through music. By delivering warm and soul-stirring performances, they continue to foster a deep connection between performers and the audience, enriching the local cultural landscape one note at a time.

The Kaibab Trio was established in Fall 2025 by Northern Arizona University Kitt School of Music faculty Shane Werts, oboe, Kelsi Doolittle, clarinet, and Aimee Fincher, piano. Each of the members of the Kaibab Trio are dedicated to sharing their love of music and amplifying voices that may be historically underrepresented. The group brings extensive experience from orchestral, solo, and chamber backgrounds to their collaboration. While the word Kaibab is associated with multiple areas of Northern Arizona, its literal translation means "mountain lying down," referring to the plateaus near the Grand Canyon. The name is inspired by the Kaibab National Forest, located near the trio's hometown of Flagstaff Arizona and the Grand Canyon. Kelsi, Shane, and Aimee are working to connect their music with their fondness for the northern Arizona region by commissioning new works for this instrumentation inspired by the unique wildlife and scenery of the area.

Clarinetist Cecilia Kang's multifaceted artistic practice integrates performance, pedagogy, scholarship, and advocacy. Praised for "ethereal colors" and "effortless" clarinet playing (The Clarinet Journal), she has performed and presented masterclasses and lectures internationally. She is the recipient of numerous distinctions, including awards from the International Clarinet Association, the New Music USA, the Louisiana Board of Regents, the Canadian Music Competition, the Montreal Symphony Orchestra Competition, and the Canada Council for the Arts. Committed to expanding contemporary repertoire, she has commissioned and premiered more than 15 new works for the clarinet, collaborating with composers from around the world. Her recent album, The Han and Heung Odyssey, features several of these commissioned works reflecting diasporic identity and cross-cultural musical fusion. Beyond performance, Dr. Kang engages in interdisciplinary and community-centered initiatives. During the COVID-19 pandemic, she founded the Silver Linings Initiative, a global virtual panel series for musicians and arts leaders. In 2023, she curated the Han and Heung Festival at Louisiana State University, exploring Korean and African American diasporic traditions through music and dialogue. She looks forward to serving as President-Elect of the International Clarinet Association starting this fall. Dr. Kang is Associate Professor of Clarinet at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music and serves as Artist Faculty at the Sewanee Summer Music Festival and the Buffet Crampon Summer Clarinet Academy. She holds degrees from the University of Michigan, the University of Southern California, and the University of Toronto, and is a Vandoren and Buffet Crampon artist-clinician. Hyon Suk Kim is an accomplished clarinetist whose musical journey began at a young age. She won first prize in solo performance at the All Japan Music Competition for the Korean School in both the middle and high school divisions. Since 2016, Kim has served as Principal Clarinetist of the Regina Symphony Orchestra. Prior to this, she held the same role with the Daejeon Philharmonic Orchestra in South Korea from 2003 to 2016, and has performed with ensembles including the Jeunesse Musicale World Orchestra and National Repertory Orchestra. As a soloist, she has appeared with the Regina Symphony Orchestra, Kangnam Symphony Orchestra, and Arco Diabolo Orchestra, and has given recitals across the United States, Japan, and South Korea. A passionate chamber musician, Kim is a founding member and leader of Ensemble Clarinuts and was formerly a member of the Daejeon Chamber Music Society. In May 2023, she was honoured to perform in the Coronation Orchestra for the coronation of King Charles III, for which she was awarded the Silver Medal in recognition of her contribution. Kim is equally dedicated to music education. She currently serves as a clarinet lecturer and sessional coach for clarinet and new music ensembles at the University of Regina. She has also taught at Mokwon University, Chungnam University, and Chimsil University in South Korea, and has led masterclasses internationally. Kim holds a Licentiate Diploma from McGill University, a Certificate from Yale University, and a Master's degree from Northwestern University. Her teachers include David Shifrin, Russell Dagon, Daniel Gilbert, and Emilio Iacurto.

Pianist Minjung Kim is an active performer, collaborative pianist, and educator. She earned her Bachelor of Music from Yonsei University and both her Master of Music and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees in Piano Performance from Michigan State University. Her teaching appointments have included Adrian College, Oakland University, Myongji University, Hyupsung University, Chung-Ang University, and Mokwon University. A versatile musician, she performs regularly as a member of the Jenique Trio, J Soloists, and HugWorld Ensemble, where she also serves as Music Coordinator.

South Korean clarinetist Sang Yoon Kim (1987) is the principal clarinet of The Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra. Sang Yoon is the top prize winner of the 67th Prague Spring International Music Competition 2015. His career highlights include his appearance as a soloist with the BBC Symphony Orchestra under the baton of their Music Director, Sakari Oramo, at the Prague Spring International Music Festival. Moreover, he is a laureate of multiple international competitions, including the International Clarinet Competition in Ghent, first prize at the UNISA International Flute and Clarinet Competition in 2014, and first prize from the famous Jacques Lancelot International Clarinet Competition in 2012.

Clarinetist Wonkak Kim has performed as a soloist and chamber musician in more than twenty countries across North America, South America, Europe, and Asia. Praised for his “excellent breath control” (The Washington Post) and “exuberant musicianship” (Fanfare), he is recognized for championing contemporary and intercultural repertoire. Kim has commissioned and premiered more than 100 new works and is particularly active in projects that connect Korean musical traditions with contemporary classical performance. He serves as Associate Professor of Clarinet at the University of Oregon and Artistic Director of ClarinetFest® 2026 in South Korea.

Yoonah Kim is an internationally acclaimed clarinetist recognized for her artistry as a soloist, chamber musician, orchestral performer, and educator. Praised by The New York Times for her “inexhaustible virtuosity,” Kim first came to international prominence as the winner of the 2016 Concert Artists Guild International Competition, becoming the first solo clarinetist to receive the award in nearly thirty years. She is also a prizewinner of the Vandoren Emerging Artist Competition, George Gershwin International Competition, and Vienna International Competition, and is a Vandoren Artist. Kim has appeared as soloist and recitalist at venues and series across the United States, including Carnegie Hall, the Dame Myra Hess Memorial Concerts, Washington Performing Arts, and the Chamber Music Society of Little Rock. Melissa holds professional memberships in the International Clarinet Association, College Music Society, Chamber Music America, Pi Kappa Lambda, and Sigma Alpha Iota.

The ARS KLARINETTI Ensemble is made up of three accomplished musicians active in the fields of modern, contemporary, and early music. Their passion for discovering the many sonic possibilities of the clarinet across different styles and historical periods has led them to explore a repertoire usually performed on modern instruments, instead using the historical instruments employed in the composers’ own time. The result is a unique listening experience—almost a journey through a time machine—allowing audiences to rediscover sounds and expressive dynamics that can no longer be fully appreciated with modern instruments. For many years, the members of the trio have devoted great attention and study to early, folk, and art music, and have performed both in Italy and abroad at prestigious institutions. As conservatory professors, composers, and arrangers, and as experts in the ancient, contemporary, and folk clarinet repertoire, they are dedicated to deepening musical experience in all its many forms, so as not to miss a single expressive opportunity and to keep the fire of passion for the clarinet alive.

The members of the Klarisma Quartet regularly perform together in a variety of chamber music and orchestral settings, bringing to the ensemble a wealth of shared musical experience and artistic understanding. United by the distinctive sound and craftsmanship of RZ clarinets, the quartet has developed a refined ensemble identity characterized by warmth, flexibility, and expressive depth. Beyond their musical collaboration, the Klarisma Quartet embodies the unifying power of music. Coming from different national and cultural backgrounds, the musicians demonstrate how artistic dialogue transcends borders, languages, and traditions. Through their performances, they celebrate diversity while creating a shared musical voice, illustrating how music can foster mutual understanding, friendship, and cooperation between people from different cultures. The quartet's repertoire spans a wide range of styles and periods, allowing them to showcase both the versatility of the clarinet family and their commitment to artistic excellence. Whether performing classical masterpieces or contemporary works, the Klarisma Quartet seeks to engage audiences through inspiring performances that reflect both their individual backgrounds and their collective passion for music. The local roots found in the simple melodies of Mike Curtis, are shaped with a great compositional mastery into this beautiful works. Enjoy with us the premiere of the "Chinese Sketches" and the thrilling interpretation of the "Klezmer Wedding"

Ko-Ko-Ya, Inspired by "Choro," the instrumental music of Brazil, three musicians came together in 2005 and began performing live. Formed as a cross-generational unit, they build on the essence of Choro that each member has inherited, weaving melodies thrillingly with their own distinctive sensibility, and have drawn attention from many quarters. To date they have released four original albums: antique (2008), Frevo! (2011), travelogue (2013), and TASTE (2022). They have also expanded into TV anime music, releasing the Ristorante Paradiso soundtrack musica paradiso (2009) and Croisée in a Foreign Labyrinth: The Animation (2011). "Bon Voyage!," a track from their second album Frevo!, has been used continuously as the ending theme for J-WAVE's radio program "Saúde! Saudade" from 2011 to the present.

Kona Clarinet Quartet was founded in the Netherlands in 2025 by four clarinetists who had encountered each other at different stages of their musical lives and later reunited in Holland while pursuing their master's degrees. The ensemble was originally formed by an international group of musicians from Taiwan, Australia, and Singapore. Over time, the lineup evolved, and for this project the quartet appears in a special configuration of four Taiwanese clarinetists, all of whom completed part of their professional training within the Dutch conservatory system. Each member is active in chamber music performances across Taiwan and abroad. Although they met at different stages of their artistic development, all four performed Apparences II by Ton de Leeuw during their studies in Europe, developing practical insight into its layered textures, rhythmic structures, and cross-cultural compositional language. Their collaboration for ClarinetFest 2026 brings together these shared yet individually shaped experiences into a collective artistic perspective. The quartet focuses on precision in ensemble coordination, refined control of timbral density, and a unified sense of temporal flow—elements central to the interpretation of Apparences II. Through this project, the quartet aims to present a thoughtful Taiwanese perspective on a significant contemporary clarinet work, contributing to international dialogue on cross-cultural interpretation within the global clarinet community.

Only a select few artists have the ability to convey their message to the back row, to galvanize an audience with a visceral power that connects on a universal level. David Krakauer is such an artist. Widely considered one of the greatest clarinetists on the planet with his own unique sound and approach, he has been praised internationally as a key innovator in modern klezmer as well as a major voice in classical music. In 2015 he received a Grammy nomination as soloist with the conductorless chamber orchestra "A Far Cry". Krakauer began his journey with the music of his Eastern European Jewish cultural heritage at the end of the 1980s as the Berlin Wall was falling, and culture from "behind the Iron Curtain" began to emerge in the West. Inspired by these massive cultural shifts, he began to explore klezmer music as he sought to connect with his Jewish identity in a deeper way. He very quickly became a creator in his own right; first as a member of the ground-breaking band "The Klezmatics" (that launched the second klezmer revival of the early 90s), then as an integral part of John Zorn's Radical Jewish Culture movement, and ultimately as a composer, soloist, and band leader in the klezmer genre. His wide array of projects, solo appearances, and multi-genre collaborations includes ensembles, conductors, composers and individual artists such as the WDR Big Band, Abraham Inc. (co-led with Fred Wesley and Socalled), the Emerson Quartet, Marin Alsop, Wlad Mathulets, Leonard Slatkin (Orchestre de Lyon), Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg, Quatuor Debussy, JoAnn Falletta, George Tsontakis, Anakronic Electro Orkestra, and Kathleen Tagg (pianist and co-creator of Breath & Hammer). Krakauer's discography contains some of the most important clarinet recordings of recent decades. Among them are The Dreams and Prayers of Isaac the Blind (Osvaldo Golijov and the Kronos Quartet/Nonesuch), which received the Diapason D'Or in France, The Twelve Tribes (Label Bleu) which was designated album of the year in the jazz category for the Preis der Deutschen Schallplattenkritik, and Paul Moravec's Pulitzer Prize-winning composition Tempest Fantasy (Naxos). He has also recorded with violinist Itzhak Perlman/The Klezmatics (Angel) and Dawn Upshaw/Osvaldo Golijov (Deutsche Grammophon). Other notable releases include his 2015 album Checkpoint with his band Ancestral Groove (Label Bleu), Mathew Rosenblum's concerto "Lament/Witches' Sabbath" with BMOP (New Focus), Klezmer NY (Tzadik), Tweet Tweet and Together We Stand with Abraham Inc. (Label Bleu) and Breath & Hammer on his own label, Table Pounding Records. He can be heard in Danny Elfman's score for the Ang Lee film Taking Woodstock and throughout Sally Potter's The Tango Lesson. Most recently Krakauer has been co-composing a number of large scale works with Kathleen Tagg including a fantasy for concert band, a clarinet concerto commissioned by the Santa Rosa Symphony (lead commissioner), the Eugene Symphony and The Adele and John Gray Endowment Fund, and the score for Minyan by filmmaker Eric Steel. Additional new productions include the co-creation of Krakauer & Tagg's Good Vibes Explosion!, a festive genre-crossing project that was released in 2022. In 2025 he was chosen to be the Maestro Concertatore of one of Europe's most important festivals, La Notte della Taranta in Southern Italy, performing for an audience of 170,000 people. For the past 25 years Krakauer has been an artist/endorser for the Selmer, Paris and Conn Selmer companies. As an esteemed educator, David Krakauer is on the clarinet and chamber music faculties of the Manhattan School of Music, the Mannes College of Music (New School) and The Bard Conservatory, and teaches annually at the Accademia Chigiana in Siena, Italy. www.davidkrakauer.com

Trio di Buson has performed world premieres and recorded for the NAXOS and GUILD labels. Her ICA performances include Belgium, Ireland, Italy and Korea. Maryanne is currently an RZ Artist and Silverstein Artist. She has been a member of the International Clarinet Association since 1985 and is the ICA Washington State Chair and a newly appointed officer with the European Clarinet Association, contributing to the promotion of clarinet music worldwide. She is currently in high demand as a Bass Horn artist with scheduled residencies throughout USA, Mexico and South America. As an educator, she has been a Buffet Clarinet Artist 1993-97 and D'Addario Reed Artist for the Rico Corporation in demand as a clinician, soloist, chamber musician and educator throughout the country. Her orchestral experience includes Phantom of the Opera and Carousel in the USA and West Side Story in Italy and Germany. Additional orchestral experience include Federal Way Symphony (2011-13), Seattle Philharmonic (1999-2012) and Northwest Mahler Festival Orchestra (2001-13). In 2008 under Artist Management with Prestige Artists Classical Music Management, Trio di Buson was formed and contracted to perform a world premiere concert at Merkin Hall (NYC) by the Trio's pianist/composer John Alan Rose which led to a record deal with the Guild Label. Buson's Ballet Chamber Music (GMCD 7378). Known for her work has led to a myriad of outreach opportunities which play a primary role in engaging audiences throughout USA, New Zealand, Europe, Asia and Mexico. Her awareness to expand Bass Horn repertoire has gained popularity for a constantly emerging instrument. Maryanne's concerts and educational outreach projects are sponsored in the Pacific Northwest through the generous support of private corporate donors.

Javier is internationally recognized as one of today's leading clarinetists, known both for promoting the piccolo clarinet as a solo instrument and for his ongoing research and development dedicated to expanding its possibilities. He has performed in Spain, France, Austria, Italy, Poland, Portugal, Germany, Slovenia, Belgium, Mexico, Brazil, Uruguay, and the United States, premiering works that have significantly enriched the limited existing repertoire for piccolo clarinet. He is frequently invited to give masterclasses at important institutions such as the University of João Pessoa, the Metropolitan Academy of Lisbon, the University of Minho, the Karol Szymanowski Academy of Katowice, the Katarina Gurska Higher Center of Music (Madrid), the Antonio Menino International Clarinet Festival (Lisbon), the Koszecin International Festival (Poland), the Crisóstomo de Arriaga Conservatory (Bilbao), the Francisco Guerrero Conservatory (Seville), the A Coruña Conservatory of Music, the Valencia Higher Conservatory of Music, and the Royal Conservatory of Music in Madrid. In the field of piccolo clarinet research and development, he has developed several mouthpieces for commercial brands, and recently launched his own model for Backun, crafted by Richard Hawkins: Llopis Signature Eb Mouthpiece. His students have won prizes in major national and international competitions, including Intercentros Melómano, the ADEC National Clarinet Competition, the Italian Clarinet Academy Competition, Rising Stars, the Berlin Grand Prix, the Salzburg Grand Prize Virtuoso, the Golden Classical Music Awards (USA), and the "Thomas Kuti" Grand Prize, among others. He is also regularly invited to serve on juries at international competitions, such as the International Clarinet Competition "Saverio Mercadante" (Italy), the ICA High School Clarinet Competition, the Silverstein Global Clarinet Competition, and the National Competition of Mexico, among others. He has just released his second album, The Art of Piccolo Clarinet, a project that reflects years of artistic research and exploration of the expressive possibilities of the piccolo clarinet. Javier is an artist for Backun, Légère, and Anaga Classics.

Luxembourg Clarinet Ambassadors – Sound Diplomacy from Luxembourg. Sometimes it doesn't take grand speeches to bring people together – sometimes a single clarinet is enough. Or six. Founded in 2023 by the board members of the Luxembourg Clarinet Association, the ensemble brings together orchestral musicians, educators, and instrument makers from different nations – each carrying their own musical tradition with them. Whether performing as an intimate trio or a powerful octet, with a sparkling E-flat clarinet or a sonorous contrabass clarinet, the Ambassadors showcase the full versatility of their instrument family. Alongside original works and arrangements, the members are strong advocates of contemporary music and regularly commission composers from their home country to write for clarinet. Their passport is already well stamped: after their debut at the European Clarinet Congress in Tilburg (2023), invitations followed to the International Clarinet Association's ClarinetFest in Dublin (2024) and the European Clarinet Congress in Salerno (2024). In 2025, the Ambassadors performed at the closing concert of the International Clarinet Competition in Parc Hosingen as well as at the house fair of Seggelke Clarinets in Bamberg. But their diplomatic missions take them not only to concert stages – they also bring music to places where it is often missing: hospitals, nursing homes, and social institutions. Meet Luxembourg's Clarinet Ambassadors: Véronique Bernar, Simone Weber, Conny Steinmetz, Aline Schiltz, Ruben Stanga and Alex Lallemand!

Clarinetist Shuqing Lyu is acclaimed as one of the most promising young artists from China. In 2023, Shuqing was appointed the Principal Clarinetist of the Central Conservatory of Music (CCOM) Symphony Orchestra and became the first clarinetist to be awarded a Ph.D. in the school's history. A prizewinner of multiple international and national competitions, 3's honors include awards from the Saverio Mercadante International Clarinet Competition held in Italy, the China Music Golden Bell Award Clarinet Competition, the Buffet Crampon Clarinet Competition, the CCOM Woodwinds Solo Competition, and the International Mozart Clarinet Competition. Lyu has regularly performed as a soloist with major orchestras in China, such as the Central Conservatory of Music Symphony Orchestra, Hangzhou Philharmonic Orchestra, and Qingdao Symphony Orchestra. He has also presented solo recitals throughout China. With a strong passion for chamber music and orchestral playing, Lyu has participated in prominent music festivals including the Pablo Casals Festival, Karuizawa International Clarinet Seminar, Bowdoin International Music Festival, and Morningside Music Bridge Festival. Lyu's repertoire spans from Baroque to contemporary music, with a particular dedication to presenting contemporary works. He released his first album, Narration, in 2018, which included a mix of substantial and Chinese compositions. This recording is proudly distributed by the China Record Corporation, the oldest and largest record company in China. Shuqing began his studies at the Affiliated High School of Xi'an Conservatory of Music in 2006 under the guidance of Prof. Zheng Chi. In 2012, he was admitted to the Central Conservatory of Music with the highest honors and studied under Prof. Lei Fan.

Presented by Christine "Chris" MacDonnell, a graduate of The Juilliard School and an accomplished clarinetist and multi-woodwind specialist, this session draws from a rich and varied performing career. Chris has performed extensively on Broadway and off-Broadway, subbing on more than 40 productions, including New York, New York and Suff's, and has held the woodwind chair for the Radio City Christmas Spectacular featuring the Rockettes for the past four years. Her career includes performances at Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, and touring productions of Phantom of the Opera and Miss Saigon. A former member of "The President's Own" Marine Band, Chris has also performed internationally in Brazil and Portugal and currently teaches woodwinds at the United Nations International School while actively performing and presenting master classes worldwide. Henri Selmer Paris and Vandoren Artist-Clinician Dr. Jenny Maclay enjoys a multifaceted career as a clarinet soloist, recitalist, orchestral player, chamber musician, pedagogue, blogger, and content creator. She is the Publicity & Social Media Coordinator for the European Clarinet Association, and she appears on regular livestreams with tonebase clarinet. She has taught at universities throughout North America, and she has presented guest recitals and masterclasses in conservatories and universities around the world. Online, she is known as Jenny Clarinet, where she created her eponymous popular blog. In addition to teaching and performing, Jenny is also interested in travelling and researching clarinet cultures around the world. To date, she has visited and performed in more than 45 countries. Recent artist residencies include Arctic Culture Lab in Ilulissat, Greenland, and Spitsbergen Artist Residency in Longyearbyen, Svalbard, the northernmost town on earth. These projects focused on researching clarinet music from the high Arctic while using music to raise awareness about climate change. Her ongoing series, Around the World in Eighty Pieces, explores international repertoire, performers, and history, connecting audiences with the clarinet's worldwide story.

The Magic Clarinet Quartet was founded in 1993. The members of the quartet are all active performers in Taiwan, working as professional orchestra musicians and college professors. As the founding member, Ti Huang serves as Director and Clarinet Professor in the Department of Music at National Taiwan University of Arts. The other founding member, Pei-Yun Lin is the Associate Clarinet Professor in Taipei National University of the Arts; Chien-Feng Han holds second clarinet and bass clarinet positions in Kaohsiung Symphony Orchestra; and Chih-Chien Lin, currently serves as Associate Professor of Clarinet at the Graduate Institute of Orchestral Instruments of Taipei National University of the Arts. The quartet has completed numerous concerts and projects during the past years in Taiwan and abroad, including performances at the International Clarinet Association, the Single Reed Festival in China, and many other events, making it one of Taiwan's most widely presented chamber music ensembles. The quartet continues to seek newly published compositions and commissions works from composers around the world while carrying standard repertoire forward. In addition to performing, the members devote themselves to music education and outreach programs for young musicians. The quartet has hosted ten international clarinet festivals from 2003 to 2025, which have been highly praised by the world-renowned participating faculty members and students. In order to broaden the horizons of Taiwan's classical music audiences, the Magic Clarinet Quartet released its first CD, Dancing Clarinets, in 2007, which was nominated for "Best Performance in Classical Music" at the Golden Melody Awards. The Magic Clarinet Quartet is a Buffet Crampon and Vandoren Paris artist ensemble. All members perform on Buffet Crampon clarinets and Vandoren mouthpieces and reeds.

Sarah Manasreh-Decker is the Assistant Professor of Clarinet at the University of Alabama at Birmingham. Previously she served as the Assistant Professor of Clarinet and Music Theory at the University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point and principal clarinet of the La Crosse Symphony Orchestra and Central Wisconsin Symphony Orchestra. Sarah is active with the International Clarinet Association previously serving as the editor for The Clarinet [Online] and on the Social Media Committee. Sarah's playing has been described as "powerful, rich, and virtuosic." As a chamber musician, she performs with The Bearstar Trio and The Way Out, a unique group that combines classical musicians with the accessibility of bar music. As a solo musician, Sarah often pushes boundaries of traditional clarinet performance – engaging in commissions, premieres, and unusual programs – most notably her experimental new music project The Big Black Blotch. Sarah completed her Doctor of Musical Arts at Michigan State University under the tutelage of Dr. Elsa Ludewig-Verdehr. She earned her Master of Music Performance from the Royal Northern College of Music and her Bachelor of Music Performance from Florida State University. Her primary teachers include Elsa Ludewig-Verdehr, Chris Swann, Deborah Bish, Frank Kowalsky, and Lori Lovato.

Oriol Marès (b. 1998) is a Barcelona-born clarinetist and composer based in Rotterdam, active in contemporary jazz, improvised music, and cross-cultural projects. Known for his expressive clarinet and bass clarinet sound, his work expands the sonic possibilities of the instrument through composition, improvisation, and international collaboration, drawing from Mediterranean, Latin, and Middle Eastern musical traditions. As noted by The Clarinet magazine, "Through virtuosic flexibility and control, Marès navigates in a way that feels effortless and spontaneous." At the centre of his current work is the Oriol Marès & Talal Fayad Quartet, an international contemporary jazz ensemble blending jazz improvisation with Mediterranean and Middle Eastern influences. The quartet has performed at major venues and festivals, including the prestigious Concertgebouw in the Netherlands, as well as in Germany, Belgium, Italy, and France. The quartet was selected as a project-in-residence at the Centre National de Création Musicale VOCE (FR) within an international music residency program promoting cultural exchange. With Talal Fayad (oud), Lucas Zegrí (drums), and Thodoris Ziarkas (double bass), they released their debut album Estuarium, featured in the WMCE Charts and selected among the Best 2025 Iberian Roots Albums by LIMÚR. The quartet is currently expanding its international presence with performances across Europe and the upcoming performance as jazz headliner in the ClarinetFest26 in South Korea, as well as a tour across China. In July 2025, under the umbrella of the Oriol Marès & Talal Fayad project, they premiered a symphonic collaboration at the Palau de la Música Catalana in Barcelona. The programme was presented alongside The Planets by Gustav Holst, and featured Marès and Talal Fayad as co-composers and soloists. Marès graduated cum laude in Latin Clarinet from Codarts – University for the Arts in Rotterdam, The Netherlands, where he studied with Alex

Simu. He has since built an international profile as a jazz artist, bandleader, and collaborator, performing in festivals, concert halls, and interdisciplinary productions across Europe. His work includes collaborations with visual artist Antoni Miralda, sound installations at Santa Eulalia 175, and co-composition for Sant Stomak at El Bulli 1846. His first international tour took place in 2022 with the Amsterdam Klezmer Band. Marès also leads Cinco en Clave, a Latin jazz quintet that has recorded for Dutch National Television, and recently released the album Turpial Guajiro. In the coming months, he will also premiere as a composer for his first film.

Eric Schultz is an American clarinetist acclaimed for his concerto performances, inventive chamber collaborations, and trailblazing interpretations of new music. He maintains an active concerto schedule performing with orchestras across the globe and can be seen and heard from Netflix to National Public Radio. Through bold collaborations with some of today's most innovative composers, Schultz is a driving force in shaping the future of the clarinet. He has premiered over 100 solo and chamber works, many written for and dedicated to him, dramatically expanding the instrument's repertoire and expressive range. Dubbed a "superstar muse" by renowned composer Amanda Harberg and "a sensation" by Pulitzer Prize-winning composer John Corigliano, Schultz is known for his liquid, soulful tone quality and singular abilities on the instrument including limitless technical facility, improvisations that span many dialects, and an impossible five-octave range through the stratosphere celebrated as “screaming clarinet.” As an educator, Schultz encourages an individualized, project-based and passion-fueled creative approach to music learning while advocating for living composers and expanding repertoire lists toward a more intentionally inclusive and relevant future model. He is the creator of The REP Project, advocating for a broader diversity of composers in collegiate music study by intensely focusing on and commissioning one living American composer every year. Hailed a “mastermind” in the Myrtle Beach Herald and a “pathfinder” by iconic American composer Valerie Coleman, he is known for his transformational masterclasses with recent residencies at the Yale School of Music, Conservatorio de Música Piazzolla in Buenos Aires, Illinois Urbana-Champaign, Conservatorio de Música de Puerto Rico, New York University, California State University Fullerton, The Juilliard School, and more. Schultz serves as Associate Professor of Clarinet at Coastal Carolina University, where he is coordinator of the woodwind area and director of the Center for Collaborative Research. His debut solo album POLYGLOT, released by Navona Records, showcases a collection of virtuosic new works written for him. I Care If You Listen of the American Composers Forum praised the album, highlighting a “keen sense of lyricism” and “uncommon sensitivity and precision of expression.” Schultz completed his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in clarinet performance at Stony Brook University. As a Buffet Crampon performing artist, he performs exclusively on Buffet Crampon clarinets. @ericsschultzclarinet

Kevin has played chamber music with renowned musicians such as Beatrice Rana, Emmanuel Pahud, Stefano Bollani, Liya Petrova, Carlos Sanchis, Chloë Ji-yeong Mun, Théo Fouchenneret, Aurélien Pascal, Lorenzo Soulès, and Simone Rugani. Kevin began playing the clarinet at age eight and studied at the Istituto Superiore di Studi Musicali Luigi Boccherini in Lucca, completing his Bachelor's Degree with top honors at 17 under Professor Remo Pieri. He later attended the prestigious Conservatory in Geneva, where he earned his first Master's Degree with a special prize in 2017 and his second Master's Degree Soliste with Romain Guyot in 2019. In 2018, at just 22 years old, Kevin won the First Prize at the Geneva International Music Competition, one of the world's most prestigious music contests. He is the youngest clarinetist ever to receive this distinguished award. Following this triumph, Kevin received invitations for recitals, chamber music, and solo concerts at prominent festivals and tours worldwide, and his profound musicality and technical prowess have since positioned him as a sought-after performer on the global stage. Since 2021, Kevin has been regularly invited to give masterclasses across Europe, China, Brazil, and Turkey.

The SPIM (Satit) Clarinet Ensemble is a collaboration of clarinet students from two schools in Thailand: the Demonstration School of Panyapiwat Institute of Management (Satit PIM) and the Ramkhamhaeng University Demonstration School (Satit DSRU). The two schools have a history of performing together, having hosted joint concerts in 2021 and 2023. In 2025, the clarinet sections from both schools reunited with a special goal: to bring music from Thailand to ClarinetFest 2026. This aligns perfectly with the festival's theme, "Local Roots, Global Connections." Participating in this event is not only an opportunity to share Thai music with a global audience but also a chance for the students to step onto an international stage. The experience aims to help them learn more about clarinet performance, gain inspiration, and build a foundation for their future careers in music.

Carl-Johan Stjernström has held the position of Solo Bass Clarinet at the Malmö Symphony Orchestra since 1999. Prior to joining the MSO, he excited audiences as a member of Ars Nova, a contemporary music ensemble. They caught the attention of many composers who created new works for them to debut. As an international soloist on bass clarinet, composers are now writing solo concertos for him and in October 2025, he released the CD with three new bass clarinet concertos together with Malmö Symphony Orchestra and the Swedish String Ensemble, Musica Vitae. The reviews have been overwhelming and for the coming seasons Carl-Johan is booked by several orchestras in Europe and South America. This is his Asian debut, and he will perform Joseph Phibbs' concerto in a chamber version for bass clarinet and piano. Carl-Johan is also University Lecturer at the Malmö Academy of Music in Sweden, teaching bass clarinet and chamber music. Three new concertos for bass clarinet by Jörgen Dafgård, Geoffrey Gordon, Joseph Phibbs, Toccata Classics Recordings "These performances are authoritative...all these works are worth hearing" Stephen Barber, MusicWeb International, January 2026 "Carl-Johan Stjernström is a first-class soloist who takes exemplary care of the tone" Jörgen Lundmark, OPUS February 2026 "...this is a very interesting disc with three diverse works receiving performances and recordings of exemplary quality" Nick Barnard, MusicWeb International, February 2026 "Stjernström is a brilliant player and the performances are first-rate, as is the recorded sound" Henry Fogel, Fanfare March 2026

Chiho Sugo is a clarinetist, giving characteristic solo and chamber recitals regularly in and around Tokyo. She constantly commissions the new clarinet work and Hiroshi Shimada's "A Stream" -to be heard on July 8th- is specially selected this time. She formed Apricity Trio with Tracy Doyle (flute) and James Doyle (perc) and has released a CD, has been enjoying the Crossover of the Performing Arts and often collaborates with the sculpture exhibition. She also continues her exploration of expression on the E-flat soprano clarinet, recorded Violin Sonatas by Brahms and unaccompanied solo "Prism Sonatine" by Ippo Tsuboi on the CD. She is Associate Professor of Clarinet at Gunma University (Japan), where she teaches applied clarinet and wind instruments as well as Music Education related courses including Japanese Traditional Instruments, etc. She earned her Master of Music degree at Morehead State University, and completed Doctoral coursework at Louisiana State University. She studied clarinet with Steve Cohen, Michael Acord, Ikuo Inagaki, Sugako Sudo, and Takafumi Komatsu. Traumerei Ensemble is a clarinet ensemble composed of high school students based in the New York and New Jersey area. Founded in 2010, the group has been actively engaged in performances, competitions, and community service ever since. They also give volunteer performances at nursing homes and hospitals. In the summer of 2019, they toured seven cities in Spain, including Seville and Madrid, as part of the New York Youth Symphony Spain Tour. They are Silver Medal winners at the 2020 National Fischhoff Chamber Music Competition and winners of the CAI Ensemble Competition. In addition, they have achieved strong results in numerous other competitions, both large and small. In 2021, they were also featured on From the Top as a clarinet quintet. What is particularly noteworthy is that all members are non-majors—students who simply love playing the clarinet—and they meet once a week to rehearse regularly.

The TRIO AMADEA (Minori Hayashi, Yoko Yokota, Nahoko Mitsue) is newly formed in 2025 specially to perform the numerous works by Mozart for three basset horns (low-pitched clarinets, popular in the late 18th century) on period instruments. The instruments they use were built in the late 18th century, or replicate the designs of the instruments in the composer's era. The members' activities are not limited to Japan.

Trio Dépaysement (literally “un-countryping”) was formed from friendship and a shared passion for the transformative power of music. Comprised of three internationally diverse members (Jenny Maclay, Barbara Borowicz, Laurent Sultan), each having traveled extensively, the trio embraces the spirit of dépaysement, a blend of culture shock, wonder, adventure, and curiosity experienced when stepping outside familiar surroundings. Trio Dépaysement seeks to embody musical discovery by performing lesser-known repertoire from underexplored regions across the globe.

Trio Downunder: Elizabeth Lim, Sue Newsome, and Richard Rourke reunite in performance, continuing a musical collaboration that has flourished over nearly forty years across concert halls, orchestras, and stages throughout Australia and beyond. Elizabeth Lim studied clarinet and piano at the Sydney Conservatorium and furthered her training in Europe on prestigious scholarships. She has performed with major ensembles including the Sydney Symphony, Opera Australia Orchestra, and Pacific Opera Orchestra, and held principal roles in productions such as Phantom of the Opera and Les Misérables. She teaches clarinet at The Sydney Conservatorium of Music. Sue Newsome brings virtuosity to her performances – from musicals, chamber music and orchestras to global festivals and premieres of new works. She is a leading low clarinet specialist, having studied with Professor Henri Bok in the Netherlands, and is Senior Lecturer in Woodwind (Clarinet) at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music, The University of Sydney. Richard Rourke, a long-time member of the Opera Australia Orchestra—the resident orchestra for opera and ballet at the Sydney Opera House—has also performed with the Sydney Symphony, Australia Ensemble, and Australian Chamber Orchestra. His international experience includes European tours and advanced study in New York with clarinetists of the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra. Richard is an artist of Yamaha Music Australia.

Trio Hana is a newly-formed flute, clarinet and piano trio with a shared passion for performing music by all and for all. Flutist Deanna Pyeon-Govind and clarinetist Amelia Smith have performed together numerous times as teaching artists for the Los Angeles Philharmonic youth orchestra's flagship site in south LA. Trio Hana has also recently recorded Techno Parade by Guillaume Connesson. All three members are avid educators and performers throughout California and other parts of the country. They are thrilled to premiere their commissioned work, Urban Pulse, by Korean American composer SiHyun Uhm, based on Amelia's homeland journey years ago in Seoul.

Trio KAGUYA was originally founded as the Princess Basset Horn Trio with a dedication to uncovering repertoire written for the basset horn trio and to celebrating the expressive possibilities of this distinctive instrument. The ensemble has appeared at the International Basset Horn Festival (2017, Kandern, Germany) and continues to present its own artistic projects, including independent recitals, while also performing in concerts hosted by the Japan Clarinet Association. The trio has explored works by Mozart, Stadler, Rosetti, Druschetzky, Nudera, and others. Their commitment to “translating” the sound world of the Classical era for contemporary audiences has earned them high acclaim. In 2025, the group adopted its new name, KAGUYA, and presented a recital in November of the same year. Members: Mami Mikura (Associate Professor, Musashino Academia Musicae), Yasue Sawamura (Professor, Okinawa Prefectural University of Arts), Yoko Yokota (Project Associate Professor for International Exchange, Tokyo University of the Arts)

As Executive Director, Dr. Harrie has overseen the implementation of ICA's Committees such as the DEIA, New Music, and Pedagogy Committees, and together with committee members and chairs has helped expand the reach of the ICA through a number of new events and initiatives. Dr. Harrie spearheaded the creation and hosting of the virtual events ICA Plays On and ClarinetFest® 2021 Virtual alongside committee and planning partners. The success of these events led to the creation of more virtual events year-round, such as New Music Weekend, ICA Enthusiasts Workshop, Clarendoscope, and the Lunch and Learn Series. She also worked to establish the ICA's bi-annual Low Clarinet Festival in 2023. In 2021, Dr. Harrie launched ICA's Instrument Donation Program, which is now named in her honor. This program has repaired and provided instruments to over 100 students in need all over the world. She is a regular contributor to The Clarinet, has served on the ICA editorial board for submissions and also served on the Artistic Leadership Team for ClarinetFest® 2019.

Lee Livengood is currently clarinetist and bass clarinetist in the Utah Symphony Orchestra and a Past-President of the International Clarinet Association (ICA) as well as a member of the ICA Advisory Board. He also performs regularly at the Grand Tetons Music Festival. His teachers include Stanley Hasty, Mitchell Lurie, Michael Webster, and George Silfies. He has been a member of the Savannah Symphony, Tulsa Philharmonic, Fresno Philharmonic, and the Santa Barbara Chamber Orchestra. In addition to his work as a performer, Lee is well known as a clarinet mouthpiece maker and restorer, with clients around the world. He volunteered his talent and training with the Haitian Orchestra Institute (HOI), an advanced musical training platform that enables over 100 of Haiti's most talented and dedicated musicians/teachers to receive intensive orchestral and instrumental training from Musicians of the Utah Symphony (MOTUS). Begun in 2017, the program is entirely free to all of the Haitian participants, including travel, room and board. Musicians of the Utah Symphony have offered a tremendous resource in this all-volunteer effort.

Gary Whitman is Professor of clarinet and Division Chair of Woodwinds at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas. Active as a recitalist, he has presented performances at ClarinetFest conferences in the United States and Europe. He has also presented masterclasses in Peru, Belgium, Puerto Rico, and China. He has performed new works in Weill Recital Hall, the "Cliburn at the Modern" series in Fort Worth, and the Shanghai Oriental Arts Center. He is a member of Trio Con Brio, a TCU faculty trio of clarinet, viola and piano. and the Fort Worth Symphony, where he performs as the bass clarinetist. In 2009, TCU awarded him the Chancellor's Distinguished Achievement as a creative teacher and scholar. Past-President of the International Clarinet Association, Mr. Whitman is an artist-clinician for D'Addario Woodwinds and Buffet Crampon, Inc.
